

SLAM NATION

2-disc special edition includes the original TV spin-off Slammin', commentary by Slam co-founder Marc Smith, plus hours of bonus poems!

The Sport of Spoken Word

Before Russell Simmons' highly acclaimed HBO® series Def Poetry Jam, SLAMNATION captured the cutthroat world of spoken-word poetry with an "energy that pulses, snaps and crackles" (Chicago Tribune). Following slam champion Saul Williams and three other top poets—Beau Sia, muMs da Schemer, and Jessica Care Moore—as they journey to the National Poetry Slam, SLAMNATION explores "the Super Bowl" of spoken-word poetry. Tensions run high as they join dozens of other artists from across the nation to compete for the championship—and the cash prize. The drama intensifies as rivalries and controversies arise, underscoring larger questions of art versus ego and self-expression versus self-advancement.

Produced and directed by Emmy® Award winner Paul Devlin (Power Trip), this two-disc set includes the original television spin-off Slammin' plus hours of raw, uncensored bonus performances.

- A rousing precursor to Russell Simmons' celebrated HBO® series Def Poetry Jam
- Arthouse Theatrical Release in top 10 markets
- As seen on HBO®, Cinemax®, and PBS®
- Enthusiastic critical praise includes raves from The New York Times and LA Weekly.
- Featuring some of the genre's great talents including Saul Williams (Slam), Beau Sia (Def Poetry Jam), muMs da Schemer (HBO®'s OZ) and Jessica Care Moore (Showtime at the Apollo)
