A TIME FOR BURNING

The landmark film that captured the awakening of the Civil Rights Movement

"A glowing beauty" (The New York Times), A TIME FOR BURNING is a classic touchstone, which poignantly captures the mood of the times as the Civil Rights Movement challenged the nation to change its ways.

This classic cinema verité film from Academy Award®-nominated filmmaker Bill Jersey captures an all-white Lutheran Church in Omaha, Nebraska as their earnest pastor tries to get the congregation to reach out to their fellow black Lutherans only to find a well of resistance among his flock. Unsparingly honest, the film relives the anguish and awakenings of the civil rights era through the words and actions of real people.
