"Riveting! Compelling!...
Gives a stronger taste of the Iraq war experience than any film I can remember."

— Stephen Holden, The New York Times

The first war movie filmed by the soldiers themselves, straight from the front lines in Iraq

While thousands have died or been injured in Iraq, hundreds of thousands have returned alive with equally harrowing stories of survival. THE WAR TAPES is the untold story of the soldiers that never make the evening news or the morning paper.

Directed by Deborah Scranton, and produced by Robert May (The Fog of War) and Steve James (Hoop Dreams), THE WAR TAPES is Operation Iraqi Freedom as filmed by Sergeant Steve Pink, Sergeant Zack Bazzi, and Specialist Mike Moriarty. Through their candid footage, these men open their hearts and take us on an unforgettable journey, capturing camaraderie and humor along with the brutal and terrifying experiences they face.

- From the producers of the Academy Award®-winning The Fog of War.
- Short-listed for a 2006 Oscar® nomination for Best Documentary.
- Unanimous critical praise from The New York Times, Entertainment Weekly, and Washington Post, among others.
- The new, updated Director's Edition includes over 90 minutes of additional footage, interview updates and more.
- 2006 theatrical release.
